

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. This law has greatly improved our use of our time. We are no longer bombarded by unwanted solicitation calls. We have a home business and were constantly getting unwanted calls at all times of the day. This was very annoying and a waste of our precious time. We are no longer receiving these annoying calls. Please do not do anything to void the Indiana law. Thank you.